

Design and Access Statement

Design

There is no change in design of the property due to this proposal. The area under the new window will be constructed to look like the area under the current window.

Access

The removal of the single patio door will reduce access to the property. However, the property is already served by double patio doors to the rear.

