|---|-------------------------------------|
| 1 Refused planning permission | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 2 Refused permission to vary a condition(s) | <input type="checkbox"/> |

G. GROUNDS OF APPEAL

The LPA have accepted that the proposed development would not have an adverse impact upon the character and appearance of the locality or the residential amenity of adjoining occupiers and that the proposed development would not result in a disproportionate dwelling. The development would also meet the requirements of the Welwyn Hatfield District plan 2005. The sole reason given for refusal was that proposal would be disproportionate in size and scale to the original dwelling that existed prior to 2007. The original dwelling was completely un-extended and the accommodation had not been extended into the roof. The majority of surrounding residential properties have been the subject of considerable enlargement from their original built form many of which have doubled in size. Had the original dwelling followed this profile this would not have had a disproportionate impact in terms of prominence size bulk and character appearance pattern of development and visual amenity of surrounding countryside. Therefore the proposals would not have a harmful effect on the openness and character of the Green Belt and comply with PPG2 paragraph 3.6.

CHOICE OF PROCEDURE

There are 3 possible choices:- written representations, hearings and inquiries. You should consider carefully which method suits your circumstances before selecting your preferred option by ticking the box.

1. THE WRITTEN REPRESENTATIONS PROCEDURE _____ ✓

This is normally the simplest, quickest and most straightforward way of making an appeal. The 'Householder Appeals Service' written procedure is particularly suited to small-scale developments.

2. THE HEARING PROCEDURE _____

This procedure is likely to be suited to more complicated cases which require detailed discussion about the merits of a proposal. At the hearing the Inspector will lead a discussion on the matters already presented in the written statements and supporting documents. Although you may indicate a preference for a hearing, the Inspectorate must also consider that your appeal is suitable for this procedure.

Please answer the question below.

- a) Is there any further information relevant to the hearing which you need to tell us about? If so please explain below. YES NO

3. THE INQUIRY PROCEDURE _____

This is the most formal of procedures. Although it is not a court of law the proceedings will often seem to be quite similar, as the parties to the appeal will usually be legally represented and expert witnesses may be called to give evidence. Although you may indicate a preference for an inquiry the Inspectorate must also consider that your appeal is suitable for this procedure against the indicative criteria.

Please answer the questions below.

- a) How long do you estimate the inquiry will last? No. of days
(Note: We will take this into consideration, but please bear in mind that our estimate will also be informed by others' advice and our own assessment.)
- b) How many witnesses do you intend to call? No. of witnesses
- c) Is there any further information relevant to the inquiry which you need to tell us about? If so, please explain below. YES NO
