The email below was copied to 'DataSpace Consult' but it has not been picked up so please record the attached consultation response to post and FastPlanning.

Andrew - All Graham Goodhall's recent comments have been emailed to 'DataSpace Consult'. Should we assume none of them are being picked up? If so suggest you make all Officers aware of this and explain the correct procedure to Graham Goodhall.

HBRC do not have any biological data - habitats or species - for the site, which consists of closely-mown grass.

Therefore, there should be no ecological constraints regarding the proposed development.
