Amendment

Amended drawings received <http://www.consultlive.co.uk/index.aspx?appID=14613>

Decision

Other

Highway Authority comments provided 07/07/2015 considered drawings 1005 PL201 Rev B and 1005 PL202 Rev B. The amended plans, each now revision C, dated 10/6/15 are identified as having been updated solely to provide disclaimer information and inclusion of scale bar.

I present confusion, as both superseded documents (rev B) were provided with scale bars, enabling the Highway Authority certainty in respect of dimensions and observations presented within our earlier comments. I can see no other material change to the scheme layout.

I therefore present that the amended drawings have no material impact on my earlier comments, but that references to drawing numbers within my earlier comments shall be varied as appropriate.
