Comment Type: Observation

Comment: I have bought my property in Parkhouse Court and this retail unit will be directly below my flat. I strongly oppose any application to make this a betting shop. Parkhouse Court is a residential area and I do not think a betting shop fits in with the other retail and food establishments that are already in place. Betting shops notoriously attract the wrong kind of people into the area and I am concerned that this will not only lower the value of my property but also make Parkhouse Court an undesirable area to be. A betting shop is more suited to a town center environment not a residential area.
