Comments	<input type="text" value="This is green belt farming land must not be considered for housing it is important to conserve the environment for the health of the nation and to feed us for the future. Every minute an acre of forestry and farmland is being destroyed for so called progress and building. Cuffley has already to accommodate new buildings under the local plan together with a large number of developments being planned in Goffs Oak and our roads and facilities cannot take this further development which we know is the thin end of the wedge to inroad for the 600 houses planned on this land for the future if we do not stop this now. This is greed and not in the best interests of Cuffley. With the advent of much more working from home now, Brexit, and redevelopments of inner city town centres this encroachment on green belt land is not necessary in the current climate. We need to encourage our farmers to produce much more home grown food. We strongly object to this sneaky development."/>
