Comments	<input type="text" value="It doesn't seem fair to take amenity land, which is currently a long stretch of hedgerow which would shelter local animal wildlife such as hedgehogs, foxes, badgers and bird life, for this person to have a a garden room. He should build it in your own garden, don't steal land thats not yours. I note also that building on this and damage to said hedgerow has already started, prior to planning. Please do not find in favor or it will start a mass landgrab on this small section of wild scrubland on an otherwise large, developed estate."/>
