Comments	Whilst our address is not included in this application, the nature of it suggests that it will be if this application is accepted. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Fly tippers and travellers cannot possibly gain access through the adjoining houses and gardens. Burglars are always a possibility almost anywhere, but many of the houses already have strong deterrent hedges which are less easy to climb than a wire fence. However, our main objection is that many of the local homes would have their outstanding views compromised by a high, unsightly and unnecessary wire fence spoiling their outlook. If better reasons had been put forward the matter might have had more credibility.
