Comments	<input type="text" value="Dunlop states he witnessed the demolition of the cottages in 1975. Planning permission was granted to GRA in 1974 and Peerglow did not feature till much later. They sold the trainer houses in Hook lane in 1986. Peerglow is on the title deeds of sale and prior to that it states GRA. So why would Dunlop &amp; his employees for Peerglow have witnessed the demolition 10 years or so earlier? Hook Kennels was very much alive till early 1980s when it closed around 1985. The take over happened after. They could not have witnessed this unless they can prove otherwise connections to GRA. Which is why the houses were left derelict and demolished after 1986. We can prove dates through Deeds &amp; documentation"/>
