Application No: 6/2017/1962/HOUSE

Date of Refusal: 27 November 2017

WELWYN HATFIELD BOROUGH COUNCIL, in pursuance of powers under the above mentioned Act, hereby REFUSE to permit: -

Development: Erection of two storey front extension and gable front and alterations to form pitched roof to garage
At Location: Woodfield Cottage Woodfield Lane Brookmans Park Hatfield AL9 6JJ
Applicant: Ms S McCormick
Application Date: 12 September 2017

In accordance with the accompanying plans and particulars, for the reasons specified below: -

1. The proposed development would result in disproportionate extensions over and above the original building on the application site and a loss of visual openness. The proposal would, therefore, be inappropriate and cause harm to the Green Belt in this location, contrary to Policies of the National Planning Policy Framework 2012 and Policies GBSP1, GBSP2 and RA3 of the Welwyn Hatfield District Plan 2005.
2. By virtue of its design, bulk, roof-scape and materials the proposal would be out of keeping with the character and appearance of the host dwelling and the surrounding setting, contrary to Policies D1 and D2 of the Welwyn Hatfield District Plan 2005 and the Supplementary Design Guidance 2005.

REFUSED DRAWING NUMBERS

3.

Plan Number	Revision Number	Details	Received Date

1. POSITIVE AND PROACTIVE STATEMENT

The decision has been made taking into account, where practicable and appropriate the requirements of paragraphs 186-187 of the National Planning Policy Framework and material planning considerations do not justify a decision contrary to the development plan (see Officer's report which can be viewed on the Council's website or inspected at these offices).

Appeals to the Secretary of State

- If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
- If this is a decision on a planning application relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as is already the subject of an enforcement notice, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within 28 days of the date of this notice.
- If an enforcement notice is served relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as in your application and if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within:
 - 28 days of the date of service of the enforcement notice, or within 6 months [12 weeks in the case of a householder appeal] of the date of this notice, whichever period expires earlier.
- If this is a decision to refuse permission for
 - a householder application, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice;
- Appeals can be made online at: <https://www.gov.uk/planning-inspectorate>.
If you are unable to access the online appeal form, please contact the Planning Inspectorate to obtain a paper copy of the appeal form on tel: 0303 444 5000.
- The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal, but will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.
- The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to the Secretary of State that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.
