

Notice of Decision
Town and Country Planning Act 1990
Town and Country Planning (Development
Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015
Refusal of Permission for Development

Mr Ivan Chonkov
8-10 Silver Street
Enfield
EN1 3ED

Application No: 6/2022/1812/FULL

Date of Refusal: 29 September 2022

WELWYN HATFIELD BOROUGH COUNCIL, in pursuance of powers under the above mentioned Act, hereby REFUSE to permit:

Development: Installation of new crossover

At Location: 35 Northaw Road East Cuffley Potters Bar EN6 4LU

Applicant: Mr Okur

Application Date: 2 August 2022

1. The proposed second vehicle crossing does not comply with Hertfordshire County Council's dropped kerb terms and conditions. The width of the property frontage is less than the required 13.6m and the gap between the crossings would be less than the required 4.5m. In addition, the second crossing is not required for the benefit of highway safety as the property frontage is large enough to allow vehicles to turn around and leave in a forward gear using the existing crossing. The proposal is therefore contrary to Policy SADM2 of the Draft Local Plan Proposed Submission August 2016 and the NPPF.

REFUSED DRAWING NUMBERS

Plan Number	Revision Number	Details	Received Date
A100		Location And Side Plans	2 August 2022
A101		Existing Crossover	2 August 2022
A102		Proposed Crossover	2 August 2022

1. POSITIVE AND PROACTIVE STATEMENT

The decision has been made taking into account, where practicable and appropriate the requirements of paragraph 38 of the National Planning Policy Framework and material planning considerations do not justify a decision contrary to the development plan (see Officer's report which can be viewed on the Council's website or inspected at these offices).

Appeals to the Secretary of State

- If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
- If this is a decision on a planning application relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as is already the subject of an enforcement notice, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within 28 days of the date of this notice.
- If an enforcement notice is served relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as in your application and if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within: 28 days of the date of service of the enforcement notice, or within 6 months [12 weeks in the case of a householder appeal] of the date of this notice, whichever period expires earlier.
- If this is a decision to refuse permission for
 - a householder application, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice;
 - For all other appeals, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 6 months of the date of this notice.
- Appeals can be made online at: <https://www.gov.uk/planning-inspectorate>. If you are unable to access the online appeal form, please contact the Planning Inspectorate to obtain a paper copy of the appeal form on tel: 0303 444 5000.
- The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal, but will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.
- The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to the Secretary of State that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.
- If you intend to submit an appeal that you would like examined by inquiry then you must notify the Local Planning Authority and Planning Inspectorate (inquiryappeals@planninginspectorate.gov.uk) at least 10 days before submitting the appeal. Further details are on GOV.UK.
