1. The government has this week announced reforms which involve building more in towns and cities/brownfield sites and to avoid building in the countryside. GOVERNMENT POLICY
2. Rather than destroy even more farmland it is doubly important to continue/increase our home food production and NOT have to rely on foreign imports leading to an increase in air miles and pollution.
3. It's been said many times how precious the green belt is – “lungs of London” – once lost never regained. Vital that it is retained.
4. As before any development increases the pressure further on Rail, Roads, Schools and Surgeries.
5. Why is it necessary for a third decision on this application when a High Court Judge has already commented that a council cannot overturn a decision for no good reason?
6. Presumably every comment received by the council in this instance will be shown in full in order to strike an unbiased balance.
7. It's obvious that the developers will not stop at 14 dwellings and are determined to continue the creeping destruction of the countryside - WRONG.
