Comments	<input type="text" value="I am shocked at the plans that have been put out for consultation relating to the old Shredded Wheat site. In short, it is a load of 11 storey cheap flats that will have a devastating effect on our lovely town in WGC. Ebenezer Howard would turn in his grave. High rise units is not what a Garden City is about. There is no infrastructure to support this. The original plans were for an 'extension' of the town, with pool, doctors, cafes etc but this has now all gone. Just cheap flats going in instead. This will be the sort of place that you wouldn't want to walk through at night. The roads would be rammed and there are doctors and schools already at capacity. I posted on the Nextdoor app previously and I have had over 70 comments, all in disgust at what's planned. Also, please take note of the comments on WGC Unhinged group on facebook. It is clear that nobody wants this. If this goes ahead, it is clear that the people at WH Council are corrupt. Disregard for a garden city."/>
