Comments	<input type="text" value="The new proposal increases the number of dwellings from the originally approved 811 units by over 50% to a massive 1241 units. Compared with the 2015 permission this is an increase of over 240%! The proposed building height is 10 storeys which contradicts the Council's own SPD limiting building to 5 storeys. The development will compromise the Broadwater Road street scene, overpowering the art deco and Mirage developments to the south. It is inappropriate for a Garden City, being too dense in nature and totally out of kilter with the design features of the rest of the town. The proposed density is higher than Manhattan, New York. It is 264 dwellings per hectare compared with 141 for a typical London social housing estate. This is too dense, too high and detrimental to the well-being of those who will live there. It is lacking greenery and has no kinship with our unique town. The local infrastructure is inadequate to sustain a development that is large enough to form a new Cou"/>
