Comments	<input type="text" value="From a layman's view point it is hard to appreciate all the point planners have to consider. However the size and density of this development is so out of keeping please reconsider if this is necessary and that all the planning decisions are conducted with the LONG-TERM benefits to the town and those that will live in the development. If at anytime decisions are made for short-term gain please please step back and think again. Thank you Nick"/>
