Comments	<input type="text" value="I think there are too many flats. Higher rise buildings than previously agreed. They do not promote a garden city, not enough open spaces with green areas. Ugly. Need extra schools, doctors and dentist, otherwise there will be a strain on current services. It looks like no one has a garden. Where are the houses amongst the hundreds of flats? None can be seen. Too many buildings in one area, this is contrary to the welwyn garden city ethos of a garden city. No leisure facilities there either or park areas for children. Shame that welwyn garden city is losing its identity in this project."/>
