Comments	<input type="text" value="I feel these flats are far too high, for a GARDEN CITY! There is a lack of parking, for the amount of dwellings. Why can't they be town houses, or 2 - storey high flats???? What about Doctors, schools, dentists, shops????? There are not enough good shops at the moment, a severe lack of parking which is detracting people for visiting. This extra development will put a strain on current resources and cafes etc! My husband has lived here for 63 years and the town has gone down rapidly recently, and to add these high flats so close to the town centre will detract people further from visiting. The people in Gresley Close who back on to the car park will have very dark houses and feel very enclosed."/>
