Comments	<input type="text" value="I have only recently moved to Welwyn Garden City, and while I wholly support the need for more homes, these don't appear to be inline with current planning restrictions which are set to maintain WGC's integrity. I struggle to park when I drive into town as it is, so I worry about the impact of these additional dwellings on the local infrastructure. But my biggest concern is that this is going to make it even harder to get a doctor's or dentist appointment - can we see some assurances that health care capacity will be increased to support all the new developments."/>
