Comments	<input type="text" value="This development seems to go totally against the ethos of the garden city and be in direct conflict with what is supposed to be a conservation area with its six storey high rise buildings and high density accommodation. It is also unclear whether due consideration has been paid to its impact on the town from a number of aspects, namely parking (the number of parking places provided could well be inadequate for the number of residents), schooling, doctors and dentists, and safe play facilities ."/>
