I have seen my family grow in the wonderful surroundings of the town we love. I was a resident [REDACTED] [REDACTED] so have direct experience of being a neighbour to the proposed development in Campus East. Further, I have lived in [REDACTED] [REDACTED] I ask that the Planning Committee give serious thought to the following questions regarding Campus East - 1. The proposed density of dwellings is, in my opinion, too heavy for an area so close to a Conservation area. 2. The proposed development does nothing to address the shortage of housing for family occupation - houses with gardens like Gresley Close for example. This is a mistake. 3. There appears to be access from Gresley Close through the development, indicating a likely "/>
