Comment: WGC is a town to be proud of – a wonderful place to bring up a family. I cannot see why the WHBC would risk the possibility of the collapse of the town centre by allowing retail on Broadwater. Waitrose and Sainsbury have and will have greatly increased retail space, but they are in the town centre. The case has not been made for a second town centre the other side of the railtrack

Louis de Soissons produced a masterplan for the town over ninety years ago. The plan has captivated residents and visitors over the years. It still has great merit. More than can be said of this current application
