Subject: Tesco Broadwater Road Objection

I do not know if this is the correct place to lodge an objection?

I would like to make an objection to the planned Tesco development on the Broadwater Road site. The main reason for this is that we have a large Tesco store up the road in Hatfield and I feel that we are becoming reliant on Tesco as an employer, landlord, councillor, and Retailer. Tesco are bullies and they will squeeze a profit out of this town when they own it, at suppliers and residents expense and force more fair retailers out of business. We have a number of food stores around town including the new Sainsbury's development. We desperately need leisure facilities, and these should not be Tesco branded. We have no pool, no clubs, few restaurants, but plenty of food retailers – we do not need a new Tesco.

Please deny the application and force the sale to a more community focused consortium to give us some leisure facilities.

Kind regards
