Comment: Whilst the other aspects of the redevelopment plan are welcome, the proposal for a Tesco store is not in the interests of Welwyn Garden City. A new leisure centre building is clearly a price Spenhill are prepared to pay, in order to secure planning permission for a store whose profit over the next 20-30 years would vastly exceed the up-front cost of 'sweetening the deal'.

I trust that the councillors I elected will look at the bigger picture, protect the long-term interests and livelihoods of all Welwyn Hatfield residents, and the character of OUR Garden City, and reject this application.
