We are extremely worried about Tesco wanting to 'take over' Welwyn Garden City. We all know they want to take over the world and are indeed doing so. We also know that they are full of empty promises and tempters that never actually materialise.

As has been seen in other localities they are also extremely persistent - it has taken them 14 years of push, push, push to finally get a store in Sheringham, Norfolk.

Please do not agree to them coming here, we have them hugely in the Borough already and just do not need any more, certainly not in the very well catered for Garden City.
