Subject: Tesco

My husband and I deeply resent Tesco's power in the market place and are very doubtful of councillors' will to resist their blandishments i.e. swimming pool etc. It would seem to us that the whole issue lies, not with the public view, but with the council as a whole to resist all the sweet talk from this multimillion pound giant in the shape of more plans submitted which actually don't change a thing.

What happened to the "rumour"? that the Broadwater site could not be used for retail businesses?

Yours sincerely,
