Dear Sirs,

Tesco's Plans for Broadwater Road

Because opponents to the above plans have become very vocal and well organised, I think it behoves those who do not support their opposition to register with councillors and the Planning Department that there are people who silently support the plans, notwithstanding the fact that a superstore is not part of the Council's plans for the development of the site.

My reasoning is that it is highly unlikely that there will be found another economic driver for the development, and that young people in particular will benefit from the provision of a new swimming pool and a new YMCA..
