Dear Sirs

I would like to object to the proposal for having a TESCO store built on the old Shreddell Wheat site in Broadwater Road. Having been born in Guessens Road and living in W.G.C. all my life I have seen many changes since my birth in 1931. Some of these for good some not so good but on the whole I have always loved and felt proud of our town. I feel these proposals from Tesco are a sprat to catch a mackerel and a new store totally unnecessary. There is already a huge, and in my opinion, intimidating Tesco only 2 miles away in Hatfield also a large Asda so I see no reason for this new store.

with a new Sainsbury being built and a large Morrisons also a Waitrose I feel another large store will devastate our town centre and I have no wish to see this happen and finish up like Hatfield town centre which is a complete eyesore and has been for many years.

PLEASE PLEASE consider very carefully my objections and remember this is a GARDEN CITY Truly
