WelwynHatfield Borough Planning Department,

Why is the Council exempt from the rules and regulations that are applied to householders in the town.

Why has there been no public consultation about the proposed extension to the Council Offices, and where is the clock tower, surely a landmark in the town.

Why does the design consultant think there is a Police Training School in College Way, who is responsible for giving a correct briefing.

The energy consultant assumed Welwyn Garden City is in St. Albans district, WHY.

The Council has a poor track record, and wasted a lot of rate payers' money. Unuseable foot ball pitches and the High Ropes fiasco.

Why has the need for an extension not been considered earlier, surely the date for vacating Bridge Road East was known to the Council.

I would not object to a modern extension if the design is good, and preserves the present frontage and the Clock Tower, the one submitted looks cheap, not a good design and would spoil the look of the town from the Campus, what would all the visitors from overseas think.

I urge the Cpincil to reconsider this plan, and consult with the public, presumably the cost would be met from our rates.
