Comment: I write to object to the proposed extension to the Welwyn Garden Council offices and to voice quite how shocked and appalled I am at the proposal.

Firstly, The proposition is not in keeping with the rest of the council offices or the Georgian style required of all buildings in the conservation area of the town. This proposal breaks the councils own planning rules and as such must not be allowed to go ahead.

Secondly, in these times of austerity to spend public money on new offices is an insult to the hardworking members of the community who pay their council tax in the hope that it will be used to benefit the community. A new plush office for the council is a waste of money when the council should be making do like the rest of the community.

Your sincerely
