Dear Mr Saminaden

I have seen the new plans for the Council Office extension and I am very unhappy with them.

Not only has there been absolutely no attempt to use materials and design which will fit in with the existing style, architecturally there seems to be very little merit indeed. There is neither beauty nor charm.

I am very concerned that in this case there seems to be a very large disconnect with the high standards (to be supported) expected of ordinary home-owners in this precious Conservation Area, and the council's own response to planning.

You cannot seriously put this design before the public who care very much about the heritage of this lovely town.

Yours sincerely

Shuna Watkinson
