Comments	<input type="text" value="the three sites under development represent a huge area of our town. They require sensitive handling, not the huge buildings currently taking shape. The town does not expect to have high rise buildings. I understood the maximum permitted was 5 stories, already too high. The building density is not in character with our town. This whole area has been neglected for so long. Please give us something in character with the rest of our town."/>
