Comments	<input type="text" value="I object to the proposed Bio Park development. This is a quote from the introduction page of HG groups website: 'Logistically challenging, high-rise and city-based schemes are core elements of HG's portfolio and where we really come into our own' 'High-rise' , 'city based' ! Why are Welwyn garden city councillors even considering planning applications from these sorts of developers? If all these proposals are approved, the whole of Broadwater Road and beyond will be swamped with out of place commuter flats that are much taller than anything else in the Garden City. How can the council justify allowing so many new flats without the infra structure to support the number of new residents? There will be more flats than houses in our beautiful Garden City soon! -we need family homes here , community not concrete!"/>
