

I am horrified at the plans for The Biopark, Wheat Quarter and Southside. This is not in keeping with the character of a renowned garden city. The buildings would be completely at odds with the rest of the town.

I cannot believe that this huge number of flats is what is needed in Welwyn Garden City. It is a town for families.

The whole concept needs rethinking and the current application refused.

