Comments	<input type="text" value="I totally object to this development as it is turning Welwyn Garden City into Welwyn Concrete City. It is high rise and goes against the low level building we have here in our, once was green and beautiful town. This development is another example of cramming as many as possible residential units into a small space, which has been characteristic of all the developments around this Broadwater/ Bessemer Road area of late. All around this area is so ugly and poorly thought out. There are tons of flats with no regard for amenities such as parking, surgeries or green defensible space of any kind- it's just been an opportunity for someone to make lots of little boxes for people to buy and rent out. Where has the 'Garden City' ethic gone????"/>
