Comments	<input type="text" value="I object to the plans for the wheat quarter on Broadwater Road for the following reasons : 1. The buildings proposed are taller than the council's own limit of 5 storeys 2. There is insufficient green space 3. The whole site would be an eyesore in a town that prides itself on being a garden city, with open green spaces and low builds 4. We moved out of London to WGC because its open, not crowded, laid back. These constructions are going to destroy the beauty and ethos of this town"/>
