Comments	<input type="text" value="This will be no longer a garden city, more like a US suburb. The high rise apartments are not in keeping with the ethos of the Garden City. Also , and more importantly there is zero provision for extra doctors, schools, dentists etc and no parking provided. The developer needs to ensure that the essential services locally are expanded for all the new People. You cannot build a development that big , without extra services being provided as well. The doctors etc are already at breaking point."/>
