Comments	<input type="text" value="Welwyn Garden City being the 2nd GARDEN CITY will no longer be the town it was meant to be. We came here 52 years ago and thought it a wonderful place to bring up our children, with houses and gardens being the priority for families. I know we need housing but not to this degree. This was not designed to be a tower block town. If the whole site were planned for family housing and low rise apartments, that could keep the ethos of the town sensibly. I know we have to cater for the increased population but not to this degree in our town centre , how about using outlying areas instead."/>
