Comments	<input type="text" value="I fear this will ruin wgc. The schools, facilities, roads are already busy without a whole load of other people. Granted the demographic intention is commuters into London but over time that changes and people grow their family. We are also abiding by age-old rules and guidelines to keep wgc as the council want it and yet this development is the complete opposite. I really don't support this, there is too much. Cut down the amount of homes being made by half and build more infrastructure, schools, nurseries, shops, independent shops, leisure activities etc."/>
