Comments	<input type="text" value="I have lived in Welwyn Garden City for 50+ years, and have always loved the garden feel of the town. I feel this proposed development is totally out of keeping with the ethos of Welwyn Garden City. I cannot understand why tower blocks of 11 storeys are planned to be built. One of the two current tower blocks in Welwyn Hatfield (Queensway House) is to be demolished, and I believe that this style of housing cannot be the preferred option for potential tenants. The legacy of Grenfell House and the continuing issues around unsafe cladding and leasehold properties lives on. This is all without stating the other obvious issues that will arise such as the borough being able to provide schooling, doctors, hospitals, leisure services etc to this huge amount of additional residents."/>
