Comments	<input type="text" value="This is dreadful and completely out of place .It is out of character in a garden city setting and will be a very large blot on the landscape.Have the planners thought about the fact that we are already short of doctors and schools.I think that the planning committee should go back to the drawing board and think again.It should never be passed and they should appoint a more sympathetic architect who understands the concept of a garden city"/>
