Comments	<input type="text" value="This design does not fit it any way with the design of Welwyn Garden City. It's a blot on the skyline of this town where I've lived all my life. The amount of people it would house is a huge concern to a town to has already grown exponentially over the last 10 years. It's a disaster waiting to happen, ugly and not in keeping with a Garden City. Neither is it intelligent architecture in a time when the world needs to do more than rethink its eco methods. No way should this be considered."/>
